

Subhash S. Bhatt : a brief note...

He did his M. A. (eng. lite.), M. ed. (edu. methods of the world) and P.G.C.T.E (linguistics and phonetics). He taught english language for 35 years in a school. He is fond of reading books and life. His wonder kept him wandering purposelessly in the Himalayas, for the last 40 years. He has been to USA for some lectures. He has profound inclination for all the mystico - spiritual and psycho-philosophical religions, sects and cults of the mankind. In his solitude, he wants to talk and listen silence and in his silence, he wants to remain alone and talk with aloneness. He believes that any moment which is lived totally is a sacred moment. As if, he has dedicated all his breath to understand and enhance the joy of living.
